PART I: NEW ENTRY REQUIREMENTS FOR THE POSTGRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN LAWS

This statement is issued by the Standing Committee on Legal Education and Training. It applies to all students seeking admission to study the Postgraduate Certificate in Laws in Hong Kong from September 2008 onwards.

Core Subjects

To be eligible for admission to the PCLL, all students will have to demonstrate competence in 11 Core Subjects. These are

Contract	Civil Procedure
Tort	Criminal Procedure
Constitutional Law	Evidence
Criminal Law	Business Associations
Land Law	Commercial Law
Equity

Graduates who hold a Bachelor of Laws degree from a university, other than one of the three universities offering such degrees in Hong Kong, or other recognized law qualification, acceptable to the PCLL providers may be able to demonstrate competence in these 11 Core Subjects when such have been completed as follows:

- (a) as part of their non-Hong Kong common law qualification; and/or
- (b) as a visiting “internal” student in one of the three universities awarding LLB and/or JD degrees in Hong Kong and passing the requisite examination; and/or
- (c) by passing the relevant subject in the Hong Kong Conversion Examination for PCLL Admission.

Top-up Subjects

Students who have not passed all of the following three subjects at a university LLB / LLB double degrees / JD course in Hong Kong must also demonstrate competence in the following three Top-up Subjects:

Hong Kong Constitutional Law	Hong Kong Legal System
Hong Kong Land Law

Such students can demonstrate competence in the three Top-up Subjects in any one of the following ways:

- (a) as a visiting “internal” student in one of the three universities awarding LLB or JD degrees in Hong Kong and passing the requisite examination; and / or
- (b) as part of the Graduate Diploma in English and Hong Kong Law taught and awarded in Hong Kong; and / or

- (c) by passing the relevant subject in the Hong Kong Conversion Examination for PCLL Admission.

Transitional Arrangements

Students who, on or before 1 September 2006, have successfully completed courses in Business Associations and / or Evidence which are currently recognized for admission to the PCLL will be exempted from the above requirements in respect of these two Core Subjects.

The Hong Kong Conversion Examinations for PCLL Admission

Students who do not meet the above eligibility requirement for PCLL admission are not required to attend any conversion courses. There will not be any mandatory Conversion Courses. Students may prepare for the Hong Kong Conversion Examinations for PCLL Admission through self-study or attend courses to prepare themselves for the Conversion Examinations. The attendance at such courses is in itself insufficient to demonstrate competence in the Core Subjects or Top-up Subjects.

Conversion Examinations will be offered twice a year in the following subjects:

Core Subjects: Civil Procedure
 Criminal Procedure
 Commercial Law
 Evidence
 Business Associations

Top-up Subjects: Hong Kong Constitutional Law
 Hong Kong Legal System
 Hong Kong Land Law

All other Core Subjects must be completed as part of a student's main law qualification.

Arrangements for Conversion Examinations after 2008

Conversion Examinations are being offered twice every year. In 2017, examinations will be held in January and June to enable students to meet the requirements for admission to PCLL in September 2017.

The dates of the examinations in June 2017 and January 2018 are set out in paragraph 13 and 14 of Part III of this Information Package respectively.

Students will not be required to complete all Conversion Examinations they need to sit in one attempt. Students are therefore encouraged to plan completion of the requisite subjects in stages. A student can also make a subsequent attempt at a failed subject at a later examination session.

All PCLL providers will take into account a student's results obtained in an attempt at the Conversion Examination in June for admission to the PCLL in September of the same year.

Application and Registration for the Hong Kong Conversion Examinations

The Conversion Examinations will be supervised by the Conversion Examination Board set up by the Standing Committee on Legal Education and Training. Such examinations will be available to students on an ongoing basis twice in every year. Full details of syllabus outlines, application deadlines and fees, and examination timetables in relation to the June 2017 Conversion Examinations are contained in this Information Package.

Enquiries regarding the Conversion Examinations should be directed to the Conversion Examination Board c/o:

For students who are completing or have completed their legal studies other than at one of the three universities in Hong Kong that award the LLB or JD

1. If you consider that you may be able to demonstrate your competence in all or any of the Core and Top-up Subjects without sitting the Conversion Examinations, you may submit an application to the Conversion Examination Board for an evaluation of your status. If you are evaluated as required to sit one or more Conversion Examinations you will be informed as soon as possible.
2. When you have been informed of your need to sit one or more Conversion Examinations, you can decide how and when you wish to attempt to complete the Examination(s). You will be informed of the latest date to register for the Examination of your choice.
3. If you do not submit an application for evaluation of your status, you may still register to sit for the Examination(s) directly.
4. It is entirely within your discretion to decide the sequence of subjects in which you will be examined. There is neither a minimum nor maximum number of subjects that any student can attempt at any one session. There will be no limit on the number of students who can sit an examination at one time, and no limit on the number of attempts. The standard of the examinations will be set and marked to be equivalent to the standard of an LLB degree awarded in Hong Kong.
5. The following deadlines in respect of the examinations in June 2017 should be noted:

Deadline for submission of all materials for evaluation: 28 February 2017
Deadline for application to sit the Conversion Examination: 18 April 2017

The following deadlines in respect of the examinations in January 2018 should be noted:

Deadline for submission of all materials for evaluation: 31 August 2017

Deadline for application to sit the Conversion Examination: 15 November 2017.

6. There will be fees payable for evaluation of your status and for registration to sit the Conversion Examinations. Details are available in this Information Package.

Hong Kong law students attending courses in overseas universities

Local law students will not be allowed to take the Conversion Examination to replace their study in their own university. In the event of any local law student who, by reason of his/her participation in any exchange or double degree programme organized by his/her university in Hong Kong, would not be able to take any of the compulsory subjects in his/her university in Hong Kong, he/she may apply for exemption of the subject that he/she is unable to take in the university in Hong Kong provided that the following conditions are satisfied:

- (1) He/She takes the relevant subject and passes the assessment(s) in the university he/she attends during the exchange/double degree programme, and
- (2) He/She has sought and obtained the exemption for the relevant subject prior to his/her embarking on his/her study for the subject in the foreign university.

Should the student fail to obtain an exemption in the relevant subject prior to his/her embarking on his/her exchange study, exemption will NOT be given and therefore he/she will be required to study and pass assessment(s) in the relevant subject at one of the 3 recognized law schools in Hong Kong. Prior exemption applications should be made to the university he/she attends of which authority has been delegated by the Conversion Examination Board. For student whose application could not be approved by the law schools, he/she should apply directly to the Conversion Examination Board.

Students who have already finished their overseas exchanged studies before September 2015 should apply for exemption directly to the Conversion Examination Board as per existing practice.

The Conversion Examination Board reserves discretion to depart from these principles in exceptional cases.

IMPORTANT: Even if you have been evaluated as meeting the eligibility requirements, or if you have passed all necessary Conversion Examinations, or hold a Bachelor of Laws degree or other recognized law qualification acceptable to the PCLL providers, there is no guarantee that you will be offered a place to study the PCLL at one of the providers in Hong Kong.

Closing date for registration for Conversion Examinations for June 2017 is 18 April 2017.

To be completed and returned to:

The Secretary
Conversion Examination Board,
C/- PCLL Conversion Examination and Administration Limited
34/F United Centre,
95 Queensway,
Hong Kong

This form should be completed and returned to the above address together with (i) supporting documents and (ii) an application fee of HK$1,000 (non-refundable and subject to change) payable by cheque made out to the "PCLL Conversion Examination and Administration Limited". Please write down your full name on the back of the cheque. Cash will NOT be accepted. Overseas applicants should download these documents and submit a completed hard copy to the above address and should pay the application fee by a Hong Kong dollar bank draft drawn on a bank in Hong Kong. An acknowledgement will be issued on receipt of this application. If you do not receive this acknowledgement by e-mail within 2 weeks, you should consider that we have not received your application and you should check with our office. Your evaluation results may be delayed if the application received is incomplete by the deadline. All application forms and supporting documents submitted will be retained by the Conversion Examination Board. Documents submitted for the purposes of evaluation will be separately scrutinized by PCLL providers should you subsequently apply for admission to the PCLL. Therefore DO NOT SEND ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS in support of this application for evaluation.

Please read the following Notes to Applicants before completing this application form.

Notes to Applicants for Evaluation

1. If you consider that you can demonstrate your competence in all or any of the Core and Top-up Subjects without being required to pass the Conversion Examinations, you may complete this application and submit it to the Conversion Board for an evaluation of your status with a view to being exempted from examination in one or more of the Conversion Examinations.
2. Applicants who, on or before 1 September 2006, have successfully completed HKU SPACE courses in Business Associations and / or Evidence which were recognized for the purposes of admission to the PCLL up to and including September 2006 will be exempted from the above requirements in respect of these two Core Subjects. However, applicants are still required to apply for formal exemption(s) by the Conversion Examination Board by submitting a completed Form A.

3. Applicants should complete and submit:
 - (i) Form A;
 - (ii) a copy of all official academic transcripts for the qualification(s) by virtue of which they are applying for exemption;
 - (iii) an application fee of HK$1,000 payable by cheque made out to the “PCLL Conversion Examination and Administration Limited”.

Applications must be sent to the Conversion Examination Board c/- PCLL Conversion Examination and Administration Limited, 34/F United Centre, 95 Queensway, Hong Kong.

4. Do not send original transcripts with the application.
5. Applications must be complete at the time of submission. Only applications which include all supporting documentary evidence will be processed.
6. All applications will be considered on an individual basis and exemptions will be granted at the discretion of the Conversion Examination Board the decision of which is final. Company Law in a considerable depth without the component of partnership may be eligible for the exemption of Business Associations. Students should note that the Board is not bound by any precedents. All exemptions given to universities will be reviewed regularly and students should not rely on precedents of other fellow students of the same university.
7. Applicants who wish to sit the Conversion Examinations are not obliged to submit Form A. Nevertheless, if they seek exemption from any of the Conversion Examinations, or they are unsure whether the subjects they have / will have studied in their law qualifications meet the exemption requirements, they have to submit an application for evaluation and ensure that the application be received by the Conversion Examination Board on/before the following dates:
 - (i) 28 February 2017– for applicants sitting the June 2017 examinations
 - (ii) 31 August 2017 – for applicants sitting the January 2018 examinations
8. It is students’ responsibility to ensure that their applications reach the office before the deadline. Excuse of loss or delay in the post will not be entertained unless it is a case where the application is sent by registered post at least 2 weeks before the deadline, and the student is able to produce the receipt or certificate of posting.
9. An Application Fee of HK$1,000 is payable for the evaluation of each candidate’s application.
10. The Application Fee should be paid by cheque made payable to the “PCLL Conversion Examination and Administration Limited”.
11. All fees paid are not refundable under any circumstances.
12. All fees payable to the Conversion Examination Board are subject to adjustments.

PART IV: SYLLABUS FOR EXAMINATION

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1. Syllabi and reading lists

Part IV of the Information Package (“Syllabus for Examination”) issued by the Conversion Examination Board in December 2006 has been revised with the inclusion of more details on the content of the syllabus and of a reading list for each of the subjects. The revised Part IV is included in this Information Package.

2. Sources

Sources are listed at the end of each syllabus. Hong Kong cases can be accessed at the Hong Kong Judiciary’s website: www.judiciary.gov.hk and the Hong Kong Legal Information Institute (“HKLI”) website: www.hklii.org. The Laws of Hong Kong can be accessed at the Bilingual Laws Information System (“BLIS”) website: www.legislation.gov.hk.

3. Preparation for the Examination

Students are expected to keep themselves up to date on the law at all times. For the purpose of the Conversion Examination, students will be tested on the relevant law as it applies one month prior to the date of the examination. Credit will be given to students who demonstrate accurate knowledge of relevant update legal developments that occur within one month before the examination.

Students are advised to complete Land Law in their main law qualifications and to familiarize themselves with Hong Kong Land Law before attempting the Hong Kong Land Law conversion examination.

Students who have to take Commercial Law conversion examination are required to take all parts in one sitting unless they have got partial exemption or partial failure in previous sitting(s).

4. Format of the Examination

Please refer to Part III paragraph 18 for the formats of the Examinations.

PART V: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Should an LLB graduate of one of the universities in HK who completed some of the core courses in an overseas university as an exchange student apply for exemption?

Provided the qualification of the LLB graduate is awarded by the HK institution and contains the core subjects this will comply with the new eligibility requirements. Should there be any doubts he is advised to check directly with his awarding institution in Hong Kong.

2. Will the Exam Board require original transcripts sent directly from the awarding institutions or will a copy be acceptable?

No original copies of qualifications should be sent to the Conversion Examination Board. Only copies of the originals will be required. All documents submitted will be retained by the Board therefore an applicant must not send originals of transcripts or awards.

3. When a student passes the exam, what will be done? Will certificates be issued? Will Universities require transcripts to be sent directly from the Exam Board?

The Conversion Examination Board will notify candidates directly. Results Notices will be issued and candidates can submit these to PCLL providers when applying for a place on the PCLL. Candidates must ensure that they submit up-to-date contact details to ensure timely notification of results. Candidates taking the June examination could also consider authorizing the Conversion Examination Board to send their results directly to the universities by indicating this on their examination application forms.

4. Will the Results Notices show any failed subjects?

Yes. However, there will not be any grade classifications. Only Pass or Fail for all subjects taken will be shown on the Results Notices.

5. Does a student holding Evidence and/or Business Associations need to apply for exemptions?

A student who, on or before 1 September 2006, has successfully completed Business Associations and/or Evidence on HKU SPACE courses which were recognized for entry to the PCLL will be exempted from Conversion Examinations in these subjects. HOWEVER he is still required to apply for formal exemptions through the Conversion Examination Board.

6. Will anyone offer preparatory courses before the exams?

Yes, for example, HKU SPACE has been offering preparatory courses since 2007.

7. Will exam fees be refunded if a student is sick or has special reason not to attend the exam? If a student is present at the exam, will the Exam Board take special considerations into account with regard to his performance?

No refund will be given where a candidate fails to attend an examination as scheduled. No special consideration will be given by the Board with regard to factors affecting performance in an exam.

8. Can a student appeal his results? If so, will it be charged?

Applicants who wish to get a soft copy of the examination script, should write us a letter indicating which subject and which examination they would like to obtain and also submit an administration fee of HK$300 per script payable by cheque made out to "PCLL Conversion Examination and Administration Limited". Marks will be shown on the scripts. Applicants who wish to appeal their examination results should submit to us an Appeal Form (Form C), which is available on our website, together with the appropriate application fee, within 2 weeks after the release of examination results.

9. Who will be the main contact for enquiries regarding the exams?

All enquiries concerning the Conversion Examinations should be directed to The Secretary, Conversion Examination Board, c/- PCLL Conversion Examination and Administration Limited, 34/F United Centre, 95 Queensway, Telephone number 3761 1123, Email address enquiry@pcea.com.hk.

10. Does a student need to pass all examinations at one sitting?

No. A candidate can take any number of examinations at any one session. A candidate can also take any number of attempts at any examination.

11. Can I take the conversion examinations before I graduate?

Yes, you can take the conversion examinations anytime before your admission to PCLL.

12. Do the results of conversion examinations have any time limit?

No. The conversion examination results do not have any time limit. However, all universities operate on a merit based policy, qualifications obtained over 10 years will not normally be viewed favourably by universities for PCLL admission.
